WESTERN PLEASURE HORSE

Western Pleasure is a western style competition at horse shows that evaluates horses on manners and suitability of the horse for a relaxed but collected gait cadence and relatively slow speed of gait, along with calm and responsive disposition. The horse is to appear to be a "pleasure" to ride and very comfortable, while being very smooth. Most light horse breeds compete in western pleasure classes. However, horse conformation and temperament play a role in this event, and hence animals that are calm, quiet, have collected, soft gaits and the strong muscling required to sustain slow, controlled movement are the most competitive. Horses and riders show in western tack and attire. The horse carries a western saddle, and wears an open-faced bridle without a noseband. The rider wears a long-sleeved shirt, sometimes with a vest or jacket, chaps, a cowboy hat, and cowboy boots. Gloves and spurs are optional. The riders compete as a group at the same time, traveling around the outer edge of the arena. All contestants, at the command of the event's judge, are asked to have their horse walk, jog (a slow trot), and lope both directions in an arena, as well as to stand quietly and back up readily.

REINING

This is an individual class. Each participant will complete a reining pattern, which shall contain circles, change of lead, rollbacks, spins, stops and back-ups. In fact, all the maneuvers they would need on the ranch. Novice classes will ride at a walk and jog. Open classes will ride at a walk and lope. The reining patterns will be available in advance for the competitors.

COWBOY DRESSAGE

This is an individual Class. The rider demonstrates an understanding of the gaits with accuracy, while riding the horse with a soft feel and harmony. The challenge course adds some obstacles as well. It is ridden in a 40m x 20m arena. An example of a CBD test would (be) include: opening a gate, 10m circles in a jog, 20m circles in a lope, trotting poles, reverse with accuracy around a corner, 360 degree turns, turns on the haunches, turns on the fore, working and free walk, halts.

This class is suitable for all breeds. Western saddles and tack are preferred, but at this introductory level, the rider will not be penalized for riding in other types. However, riders should attire themselves in western clothes, such as long sleeved shirts and jeans. A copy of the arena layout and the tests will be sent out to all participants in advance.
